

DAY 4 Tuesday, April 5, 2011

WELCOME TO COLONIAL FALMOUTH, THE CARIBBEAN'S GEORGIAN-STYLE GEM

Once a major port in the 18th and 19th centuries, this Jamaican town grew incredibly wealthy off of sugar production. Ships laden with sugar and rum would leave for Britain daily, just as others would arrive with slaves. It was an age of prosperity and sophistication, marked by the splendid Georgian-style "Great Houses" still perfectly intact today. On the other hand, it was an economy entirely dependent on the slave trade—an age of inhumanity overshadowed by great fortune. All that came to an end with the Emancipation in 1840, and today, it's as if time stands still in colonial Falmouth. Many of the same quaint wooden houses still line the streets, with village carpenters handcrafting custom furniture in age-old tradition. A few of the old Georgian brick mansions and sugar plantations are now open to visitors, full of antiques and memorabilia to feed the imagination. And Falmouth's tropical setting is just as romantic. A 30-foot bamboo raft takes you down the Martha Brae River as you listen to the legends of an era gone by.

ACTIVITIES & ENTERTAINMENT HIGHLIGHTS

WHY NOT TODAY?

TODAY'S SHOWS

* Comedy LIVE

Starring Tony Daro & Rick Corso. Reservations are required for all 9:00 pm & 10:30 pm Comedy shows. This show contains adult material, therefore, we only invite guests 18 years and older. Minimum of 25 guests needed to present a show. Guest must be seated 10 minutes prior to showtime as the doors will close and will not re-open until the show is over. Please note, this is the same show repeated several times during the cruise. Comedy LIVE, Deck 4.

* Headliner Showtime

Beatlemania-Live! If you love The Beatles, this is the tribute show for you. Beatlemania-Live! will recreate the greatest hits of the band from Liverpool. The show encompasses three costume changes and runs in chronological order starting with The Beatles in 1964 (think mop-tops and "The Ed Sullivan Show"). After a quick intermission, the band returns in Sgt. Pepper costumes with a colorful, psychedelic-military look and performs songs from 1967 and the Magical Mystery Tour. The final segment treks through the Abbey Road / White album era. The music is played live without any prerecorded music or effects. We act like the Beatles on stage. We dress like them with the accents and everything, explains Mac Ruffing, who has been playing Paul McCartney with this group for more than 15 years. Beatlemania-Live! is a show that recreates the musical hysteria of the day. As for the rest of the audience, the reactions are genuine. Fans say they sound just like The Beatles. 8:30 pm & 10:30 pm, Opal Theater Decks 4 & 5. You have one last chance to see this great show tomorrow, 9:30 pm.
